

CUMMINS LAST TO START OUT

Roosevelt's Decided Stand Against A Third Term Has Brought Out Iowa's Reformer.

HAWKEYE'S STATESMAN WILL RUN

While Not Officially Announced, It Is Certain That The Governor Of Iowa Will Be In Race For Presidential Nomination.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Don McInnes, Ia., Dec. 12.—Governor Cummins will surely become a candidate for the Presidential nomination in the word passed out at the republican headquarters here tonight. Just when the Governor will make a formal announcement is not known, but friends are positive he will run.

Favored Roosevelt

It is known that Governor Cummins favored Roosevelt and that he

J. C. KOLIBAUS, of the Northern District of the United States Court, has handed down a decision in the suit of the Parker Pen Company of Janesville against Siegel, Cooper & Company, granting the plaintiffs a perpetual injunction, under the United States patent laws, by which the price of their pens is fixed and the defendant firm can not sell them at a cut rate. The decision is an interesting one as it firmly establishes the law on the question of the manufacturer of a patented article, maintaining the price of his product, even though the articles sold at reduced figures were not bought from him but through a third party. Siegel, Cooper & Company purchased a supply of pens manufactured by the Parker Pen Company and proceeded to advertise and sell them at a cut rate. An injunction was asked and granted restraining them from doing so and by the ruling all patented articles must be sold at the price named.

For Coughs

It would be very interesting to know how many years your family physician has prescribed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for coughs, colds, and all forms of lung troubles. Ask him the next time you see him. We know physicians who have used it for over half a century.

Short Honeymoons.

Honeymoons are going out of fashion, and will probably eventually disappear—at present, they are often shortened to four or five days, or even a pauper week-end; and, after all, these protracted wedding trips, though generally the event of a woman's life, were often boring to a man.

Janesville Gazette, Dec. 12, 1867.—The Oratorio of Esther.—Will be given next Tuesday and Wednesday evening.
All gentlemen and ladies taking part in it, are requested to meet at the Congregational church at 6:30 o'clock P. M. this (Thursday) evening for rehearsal.

Runaway.—A double team attached
to a lumber wagon with a bay
rake on it took a lively little race
down Court street hill this morning.
Time, good. The stakes were left in the street, together with several pieces of rigging and the driver's hat.
The racers were brought up in good style in front of the Schuyler House.

A Good Trade.—We think all our merchants are in the enjoyment of a good trade at the present time. A book firm informed us this morning that the sales of their house were greater last month than they ever had been in the corresponding month of any year save 1855. It is exceedingly gratifying to know that business is so flourishing.

The committee of Foreign affairs
will be prepared to report the Alaska
war.

Late dispatches from Shanghai mention new and more serious outbreaks in the province of Chih, near Pekin. At last accounts the rebels were marching on the capital.

Appropriation treaty back to the House on Thursday next, when it will probably pass by a small majority.

Had Washed His Face.—A friend of ours has been up north on a hunting expedition, and in company with his companions stopped at a house which they came across, for dinner. Things didn't look particularly nice, but the demands of hunger were too imperative to admit of being too nice and they concluded to get a meal there. After due time the report was announced and they gathered around the table.
Soon a little boy came to the back of his mother's chair with some request. She directed him to go away and wash his face. He replied that he had washed his face. "When?"
was the mother's response. "Day before yesterday," replied the stranger. naturally thought that it was the way the dishes were washed they were likely to get their peck of dirt before their allotted time came.

Pekin. At last accounts the rebels
were marching on the capital.

Appropriation treaty back to the House on Thursday next, when it will probably pass by a small majority.

Runaway.—A double team attached
to a lumber wagon with a bay
rake on it took a lively little race
down Court street hill this morning.
Time, good. The stakes were left in the street, together with several
pieces of rigging and the driver's hat.
The racers were brought up in good
style in front of the Schuyler House.

A Good Trade.—We think all our merchants are in the enjoyment of a good trade at the present time. A book firm informed us this morning
that the sales of their house were greater last month than they ever had
been in the corresponding month of any year save 1855. It is exceedingly gratifying to know that business is so
flourishing.

The committee of Foreign affairs
will be prepared to report the Alaska
war.

Late dispatches from Shanghai
mention new and more serious outbreaks in the province of Chih, near Pekin. At last accounts the rebels
were marching on the capital.

Is Money Tight With You?

If so, you will be pleased to note that your goods in the Dental line may be easily met. If you select the Right Dentist, Dr. Richards has built up the largest Dental practice in the city during the past 7 years by delivering three things.

18T. PAINLESS DENTISTRY. Just this A. M. one of the most prominent and influential citizens of Janesville consulted him and had an ulcerated tooth extracted and said in departing:

"Dr. Richards, you did that very nicely and satisfactorily to me."

2NDLY. GOOD, HONEST WORK.

Time tells the tale in all things and time only shows up the durability of his work.

3RDLY. REASONABLE PRICES.

You no doubt have paid $10 each for those gold crowns in your mouth. Dr. Richards has put out hundreds in this city for just $5 each, and guarantees them to be the same in every respect—quality of gold, thickness of gold, purity, etc., etc.

What's the use of paying twice as much as necessary, when by consulting

Dr. Richards you may get the same work at a less price and all done painlessly in the bargain.

SECOND BASKETBALL GAME OF THE YEAR

Y. M. C. A. Teams Will Struggle with Milton College Teams This Evening.

The Y. M. C. A. basketball team will play the second game of the season in the auditorium of the building this evening with the first team from Milton College at seven-thirty o'clock.

The Milton team has already played several games and will give the local team a much harder time than the Brodsky team did last Thursday night when the visitors were not given a look-in by the Janesville aggregation.

The second team of this city will also meet the second team of the college this evening. The local line-up will be as follows: First team—L. Matthews (Capt.), forward; B. H. Baker, Jr., forward; Roy Clegg, center; H. F. Carpenter, guard; V. Beers, guard; Gage, Guard; second team—H. Bonham, center; S. Richards, forward; R. Cunningham, forward; E. Docto, guard; E. Strang (Capt.), guard; G. Robertson, substitute; L. N. Rounsville, Milton, Umpire; Walter Clark, Janesville; Coker, F. Baker, Janesville; Thimkooper, A. Clark, Janesville. A number of roosters are expected to come down from Milton with the team and preparations are being made for a large crowd at the game.

SHERIFF IS LOOKING FOR OLAF JOHNSON

Who is Accused of Stealing Two Gold Watches from the Home of John Krudzon at Orlerville.

John Krudzon or Orlerville came to the city today to interest Sheriff L. U. Fisher in the pursuit of Olaf Johnson, a diminutive Scandinavian emigrant about 60 years of age, bald-headed, and weighing 125 pounds, who, so the complainant alleges, left his premises after midnight Tuesday evening with two gold watches belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Krudzon. Mr. Krudzon had since been informed that the man had been in the neighborhood six weeks and under his own roof for fortnight, sold one of the timepieces in Beloit. In company with the sheriff he started this morning for the Line City in search of the fugitive.

PERSONAL MENTION.

The Moundmen M. F. Argall and F. Brigham of Albuquerque, New Mexico, who have been guests of local friends, are now visiting in Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Gould of Oshkosh are visiting with Mrs. David Field. Mr. Gould is in the lumber business and is one of the prominent residents of the northern city.

Miss Helen Jeffrie, who has been pursuing a course of study in a school near Boston, is expected home for the holidays.

Postoffice Inspector Bird was here from Milwaukee yesterday.

Alderman W. C. Rohfeld was a Beloit visitor yesterday.

Miss Euretta Klinbult went to Madison this morning.

C. C. Shockley, freight agent of the Rockford & Interurban lines, was in the city on business today.

T. B. Nolan was in Beloit yesterday. Mr. O. Mount left for Minneapolis last night. He will return tomorrow.

Mr. H. Green left for Los Angeles this morning.

P. H. Roberts is a Milwaukee visitor.

J. H. Benjamin is in the cream city.

F. G. Nicholson is registered at the Kirby House, Milwaukee.

Horace Harlow of Dolayton was in the city yesterday to attend the funeral of Miss Mary Thorney.

Mr. A. H. Jones leaves tonight for Downs, Kansas, where he is to wed Miss Jeannie Baumann on Christmas day, returning to Janesville immediately to make his home on Cornelia street.

Mrs. G. A. Stewart of New York City and Mrs. George Brownell of Detroit have arrived in the city for the holidays and are guests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Shearer. The Misses Stewart and Brownell are expected here on Christmas Day.

The Misses Grace P. Spaulding and Lillian E. Richards of Edgerton were visitors here last evening.

Mr. A. P. Loveloy left for Shoshone this noon.

Mrs. A. P. Loveloy entertained a large number of ladies at a four-course luncheon this afternoon at one o'clock.

Clerk of Court Jessie Earle attended a Clark of K. P. initiation at Evansville last evening.

J. H. Burns of Marshfield was in the city last evening.

BABY'S VOICE

Is the joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. How sweet the picture of mother and baby! Angels smile at and commend the thoughts and aspirations of the mother bending over the cradle. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so full of danger and suffering that she looks forward to the hour when she shall feel the exquisite thrill of motherhood with indescribable dread and fear. Every woman should know that the danger, pain and horror of childbirth can be entirely avoided by the use of Mother's Friend, a scientific liniment for external use only, which toughens and renders pliable all

DEMOCRATS LIKELY TO PICK LOUISVILLEKENTUCKY CITY HAS THE BEST CHANCE FOR CONVENTION.

STRONG BID BY DENVER

Many Committeemen Prefer Chicago,
But Sullivan Tells Them Raising of Money Would Be Difficulty.

Washington, Dec. 12.—The situation with reference to the selection of a place for holding the next Democratic national convention had so simplified itself by Thursday morning that practically all candidates for the honor had been eliminated, except Chicago, Louisville and Denver.

Chicago holds favorite place in the estimation of a great many of the committeemen who are now in Washington, but the frank statement of Roger Sullivan, who represents Illinois on the national committee, that it would be difficult to raise enough money to pay the expenses of the convention had a dampening effect.

The Denver delegation was mixing freely with the committeemen and impressed upon every one with whom it came in contact the fact of that city's readiness and willingness to pay $100,000 to secure the convention.

Louisville Has Good Chanc.

Louisville also was represented by a strong delegation, headed by Senator McCrory and Representative Shirley, and at a late hour indications were favorable to that city. The delegates named no final sum, but said they were prepared to offer the best convention hall in the country and expected to pay all the expenses of the convention if it should go to their city. One objection to Louisville was on the score of hotel accommodations, but the delegates protested that they had been very much improved in recent years and that there could be no doubt the people of that city would be able to entertain the convention in good style.

The delegation of Denver from the center of population was the principal delegation to that city and this probably will over balance the inducement which the big sum offered constitutes.

The outlook is therefore favorable to Louisville, if that city gives sufficient assurance to the committee that it can take care of the convention and will pay all the expenses.

One Vote for St. Paul.

Mr. Autrement, who will represent Minnesota in the committee meeting, will vote for St. Paul, but as no organized effort has been made to secure the convention for that city he has no hope of success.

It is almost definitely settled that the convention will be held after the Republican convention, beginning June 23 or 30.

There is no talk of any candidate except Mr. Bryan. Some members of the committee think it is too early to say any one man is certain of the nomination, but they admit that the probabilities point to the Nebraskan.

Former Chicago Sheriff Dies.

Melrose, Mass., Dec. 12.—Lieut. Aaron F. Walcott, ex-senior vice department commander of the Illinois Grand Army of the Republic, and ex-sheriff of Cook county, Ill., died at his home here Wednesday, aged 71 years. Lieut. Walcott served in the Massachusetts Light Artillery, and fought in 33 of the principal battles of the civil war. He was a native of Boston, but had for some years after the war in Chicago. A widow and three children survive him.

Pulliam is Reelected.

New York, Dec. 12.—Harry C. Pulliam was reelected president of the National League Wednesday for the sixth time by the members of the league, who are in session here for their fall meeting. Frank De Haas Robinson, of St. Louis, received one vote for the leadership of the league. Secretary-Treasurer John Heyder was unanimously reelected, as was the board of directors.

Several hundred bluejackets from the contesting ships were ashore and headed by their bands marched from the dock to the fort. The contests were surrounded by all the features of college games. The ships' crews have their individual flags and yells and they go into the sport with all the exuberance of undergraduates. The sailors play the now game in a decidedly clever manner and are frequently coached and advised by officers who made their marks on Annapolis' eleven.

A ball at the Chamberlain Wednesday night was one of the first of the social features planned for farewell week.

Senator Mallory Seriously Ill.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 12.—A special globe Senator Stephen R. Mallory is seriously ill at his home in that city.

Senator Mallory has been confined to his bed since November 20, suffering from a general breakdown, one side being completely paralyzed.

Minneapolis Pigeon Holds Record.

Boston, Dec. 12.—At the twenty-seventh annual meeting of the International Federation of American Homing Pigeon Fanciers, which closed its session here Wednesday, the best record for the year was awarded to Tornado, belonging to Fred May, of Minneapolis, Minn., with a flight of 800 miles in 16 hours. Another record flight was by a bird owned by Dr. John Schilliba, of Fort Wayne, Ind., which covered 1,000 miles in 47 hours.

Oklahoma's Senators Elected.

Guthrie, Okla., Dec. 12.—The election of the first two United States senators from the new state of Oklahoma was consummated late Wednesday afternoon by the two houses in joint session when Speaker W. H. Murray, announcing the vote of the Thedford, declared Robert L. Owen of Muskogee and Thomas P. Gore of Lawton duly chosen.

'This was spoken to the skies,' apparently, but now he turned to his son again.

"Look a-yore, you young dummer-ux, feelings is the same to gals like Sally, as money is to you and me. You ken buy potatoes, wiss, 'um. Do you understand?"

Sally said that he did, now.

"Well, then, I've tried to buy that pasture-hold a thousand times—"

Sally started.

"Yes, that's a little bit a-lle-mebby, a dozen times. And at last Sally's daddy said he'd lick me if I ever sold pasture-field again, and I said it ain't and he licked me! He was a big man—and red-headed; yit, like Sally. Now, look a-yore—you ken git that pasture wissout money and wissout price except you 'dam' feelings which ain't no other use. Sally won't lick you—it she is 'bigger' don't be a-skewered. You got tons of feelin's you ain't got no other use for—don't waste 'em—they're good green money, and we'll git often wiss Sally's daddy for hickin' me yit—and something 'on the side.' Huh?"

At last it was evident that Sally fully understood, and his father broke into that discordant whistles, once more.

"A gal that ken jump a six-rail fence—and, wissout no running start—don't let her git away you!"

"Well, I'm going to set up with her to-night," said Sally again, with a huge whom. And the time his father whistled as he opened the door for him sounded something like "I want to be an angel."

"But not to buy no pasture-land!" warned Sally.

"Ooch, no, of course not!" agreed his wily old father. "That's chust one of my darn jokes. But I expect I'll take the fence down to-morrow! Say, Sir, you chust marry the gal, I'll take her the fence!"

III.

But Sally Was the Angel.

It took Sally a long time to array himself as he had threatened. And when it was all done you wouldn't have known him—you wouldn't have cared to know him. For his fine yellow hair was changed to an ugly brown by the patent hair-dye with which he had dressed it—and you would not have liked its fragrance, I trust. Bergamot, I think it was. His fine young throat was girted within a starched standing collar; his feet were pinched in creasing boots; his hands, close-gauntleted in buckskin gloves, and he, altogether, incomparably, uncomfortable, and triumphant.

Down stairs his father, paced the floor, watch in hand. From time to time he would call out the hour, like a watchman on a minaret. At last:

"Look a-yore, Sally, it's about two inches apart, set—-and by the time you git there—say, nefer git another teller a chance to git there afore you or to leave after you!"

Sally descended, at that moment with his hat pulled in his left hand.

His father dropped his watch and picked it up.

Both stood at gaze for a moment.

"Sunder, Sally! You're as beautiful as the sun, moon and stars—and as stinku' old, smelly apothecary shops. Yore, take the watch and git along—ne'er you had some time when you—now, git along! You late already, Ooshens! You was behind time when you was born! Yass, your mammy wass disappear'd in you right at first! You wass 76 hours late! But now you reformed—sank God! I always knew it was a curse for it, but I didn't know it wass anything as nice as Sally."

Sally leaped forth to his first conquest—lighted as far as the front gate by the fat, lamp held in his father's hand.

"A—Sef—Sally, shall I set up for you tell you git home?" he called into the dark.

"No!" shouted Sally.

"Aha—aha—aha! That sounds right! Don't you forgit when you bone—well—comfortable—aha—aha! Melby on one cheer aha—ha-ha. And we'll bone take the fence down to-morrow. Melby all throu!"

IV.

Suppose She Had Greased Her Hair?

Sally sauntered confidently up the Hill of Delight upon which Sally's house stood. When within sight of it, he polished his hat on his sleeve, set the butterfly necktie straight, felt the

"You—you wouldn't like that would you?"—still meekly.

"No!" Sally answered, puzzled. "My Sunday coat would git greased!"

"My sleeve did!"

She inspected a soiled sleeve—in the ray from the hall—which had no spot on it!

"I don't care for the sleeve. It'll wash out. But Sam—he sees every—"

She laughed and was about to plunge recklessly back into his arms, but her hair was beautiful! And she had made it more so for him. He must see it! She plunged further into the ray from the hall lamp instead and flung it forward about her face. It clung and clattered there like an aurogle. Sally, in his brief life, he thought, had seen nothing more divine. She looked saucily up at him out of the tops of her eyes. His adoration made her very happy.

"There! ain't that nicer than yours?" She buried her fingers in the splendid mass, and pushed it into further disorder until it lay close-clinging about her hair.

"Oh, Sally!" said Sally, approaching her as if she were some goddess, "wear it that way, always!"

The alien thing was gone! They were in rapport once more!

Somehow, Sally's arms opened to invite her back and she came with a bold, reckless laugh. The wild sheet of hair clung again close under his chin. He recklessly thrust his face into it. Its perfume hit his nostrils and its movement against his skin were ineffable. He kissed it. Again it was the strange fashion of the cavalier—in those kisses! Where did he learn it?

"Oh, Sally, wear it always so!" he begged again. And—good heavens! he put his lips down upon it once more!

"Just when you come to see me," murmured Sally to the "lapel" of his coat.

"Sally—Sally, you are an angel!" said Sally.

And this one little word which came to dull Sally so happily out of his favorite song made the coquette very serious.

"Not an angel, Sally, Hef—Sally," she said with her head a little down, "I don't think you would like me to be such. I'm not! Angels never laugh, you know—not love. And I want to do a lot of both. But—but—Sally, I'd like to be something very nice—to you. What is the nicest thing a girl can be to you?"

"A sister!" ventured Sally, who had never had one.

Sally shivered, then laughed. But she took herself away from Sally.

The Presser temper flamed; a moment, and certain words began to form in her mind like "Fool!" and "Go!" and "Damn!" For, I think I haven't told you that Sally sometimes swore in extreme circumstances. Her father had done so;

She spoke with that trifle of hard brutality which came out now and then.

Black Light.

This curious term was first used by Le Bon of the French Academy of Sciences to describe a form of radiant energy which arises from the back of a thin sheet of opaque metal when the front is illuminated with ordinary light. Black light in some of its properties resembles the X-ray, but differs from it in fundamental points. Le Bon announced the discovery of this singular radiation in 1867.—Blue day. Nuphalo.

It Did the Business.

During the equatorial performance a number of ladies in the front stood up, thus obstructing the view of those persons who were seated. In vain were they collectively requested to sit down, till at last a happy thought occurred to one of the sufferers. He called out, in measured tones, "Will this pretty lady in front kindly sit down?" whereupon about 60 women briskly seated themselves.
